

OUR ALES

KITTY HAWK BLONDE

This blonde has a British accent and an all-American attitude with crisp flavor, light color, and great balance.

We start with the finest Irish barley along with British Challenger hops for a full-bodied, well-rounded bitterness on the back, and finish with American Crystal hops for a hint of citrus on the front.

4.4% ABV; 19 IBU $6.50

NAGS HEAD IPA

The India Pale Ale was first brewed in England and exported for British troops in India during the late 1700s.

The added hops and alcohol helped the beer survive the journey.

Our English-style IPA features an earthy, floral hop character.

This beer ups the ante on hoppy flavor without neglecting its barley soul.

NUT-BROWN ALE

Our flagship English brown ale has a deep mahogany color and a rich malt-forward flavor profile with notes of biscuit, mild cocoa, and earthy hops.

This creamy, classic English brown is an extremely sessionable ale that embodies all the characteristics of the great English brewing tradition.

4.9% ABV; 30 IBU $6.50

KILL DEVIL SCOTCH ALE

Along the Carolina coast in the 1700s, they made rum so strong it was said that it could "kill the devil." They named a town after it, and we named a beer after it. Also known as "wee heavy," Scotch Ale is the name given to a strong pale ale style from Edinburgh.

It is overwhelmingly malty, with a rich and dominant sweet malt flavor and aroma.

8.0% ABV; 21 IBU $8.25

PAMLICO PALE ALE

An English original!

The pale ale, often referred to as a "bitter," is the older brother to the ubiquitous IPA. With a much more balanced malt-to-hop flavor, it is a real thirst quencher. Irish base malt and British specialty malts are combined with English Fuggle, Golden, and EKG hops to bring us a British original beer.

HATTERAS IRISH RED

Local legend tells of "the Hatteras witch" who was tied to a tree to be burnt alive when a bolt of lightning struck the tree, leaving only her name Cora scorched into the burning trunk.

Our Irish red ale is a blend of mild British hops, sweet Irish malts and roasted barley with mild malt notes and a bewitching hint of roast.

CHARON STOUT

Named after the legendary ferryman who escorted souls across the River Styx to the Underworld, our very traditional dry Irish stout will transport you to a different world. We use malt from the Malting Company of Ireland, traditional Fuggle hops and Dublin water to brew the quintessential Irish beer.

4.8% ABV; 35 IBU $6.50

HOLY HAND GRENADE

Our Russian Imperial Stout is produced in the tradition of 18th century English brewers who supplied the court of Catherine the Great. Because it was transported across the freezing Baltic, Russian Imperial Stouts were brewed with a high level of alcohol.

A hefty malt body is matched to a heady blend of chocolate, dark fruits, and other aromas.
